

ROLE PLAY 1

Student B

You are a very indecisive person. This is the fifth fortune teller you visit because you never like the answers you get.

Say hello to the fortune teller and ask him/her about your future related to these topics:

- you'd like to buy a house or flat, but you're not sure where (in the city / in the mountains...).
- you're thinking about looking for a new job.

Say goodbye.

Student B

You started your fortune telling business two months ago, so you are new in the job.

Say hello to the customer and ask what he/she would like to know about the future.

Listen to your customer's questions and make some predictions about his/her future.

Say goodbye and wish the customer good luck.
